

Detroit Police Department 2019 Annual Report

Mike E. Duggan
Mayor, City of Detroit

James E. Craig
Chief of Police

Detroit Police Department is a model of sustained policing excellence that places our neighborhoods and people first.

DPD Annual Report Purpose

- The City of Detroit Charter mandates a DPD Annual Report that is given to BOPC & made available publicly.
- The Annual Report serves to summarize major DPD operations in the previous year.

Recapping the Previous Annual Report

- The 2018 Annual Report focused on Bridging the Gap between the Detroit Police Department and the citizens of Detroit.
- Highlighted Neighborhood Police Officers who serve as the liaisons between the Police Department and the community.

2019 Theme: Then & Now

The “Then And Now” theme highlights progress made by the Department over the past century. The report will focus on some of the following topics:

- Technology
- DPD Specialized Units
- DPD Precincts
- Department uniforms
- DPD Fleet

Then & Now: The Mounted Unit

- The Detroit Police Department's Mounted Police Division, was established in 1893, one of the country's oldest.
- Today, DPD's Mounted Police operate from one barn in Palmer Park and have 5 horses.
- They patrol most days and can be found at Detroit's major sporting, cultural, family events and parades.

DPD Annual Report Covers

Questions